

Toy Fair 2016 Preview: SMART Toys and Games

Last year SMART introduced the Three Little Piggies solo-player kids puzzle and it is absolutely adorable!! I like it so much that it made it onto my holiday picks list. Recently, I ran across this teeny tiny thumbnail of their 2016 followup, Little Red Riding Hood, and sought out their PR person to learn more. All I can say is that pictures do not disappoint and I cannot wait to see this one in person! How cute are the little roads, trees, house, and characters?! It has 48 challenges for kids ages 4-7 and will include a picture book (just like Three Little Piggies!) Little Red Riding Hood will retail for $24.99 when it hits shelves later this year.
