25 + FUN WAYS FOR ENTERTAINING KIDS AT HOME

19 OJO

Have you found yourself in the throws of homeschooling, but low on lesson plans and if we are being honest, patience? How about turning learning upside down and making it fun while staying at home with OJO. They offer a variety of innovation STREAM inspired board games that kids will have so much fun playing they won't even realize they are learning. Not to mention the content will go above and beyond that of a normal elementary Science Class. Stimulate your child's learning and mind by encouraging them to try something out of the box like Atomic Force, Food Battles, or Space Rescue board games from OJO.
